4. Recognition of Guests/District Residents

Citizens Roger Koldeway and Thomas Preusker questioned the advisability of Policy #832 – Weapons in Schools and the posting of signs on school property indicating that the carrying of firearms on school property is prohibited. The concern raised regarded the liability the school would be responsible for if injuries were to occur due to the use of firearms on school property. This policy is recommended by the WASB and has been approved by the School District’s attorney. Peter Smet will contact the district’s Liability Insurance carrier for further clarification of the District’s liability in this area.

5. Recognition of Staff, Students and Programs

Board President Dave Thompson presented a recognition plaque and a Proclamation honoring Donna Sturdevant as Wisconsin’s Middle School Teacher of the Year.
