

2014 Wall of Inspiration Inductees

Charles Roy McCanna – Class of 1900

C. Roy McCanna, who grew up and lived in Burlington all of his life, was a Burlington “institution.” A businessman, philanthropist, and community leader, Mr. McCanna was also a 28 year member and two term chairman of the University of Notre Dame’s board of lay trustees, a recipient of an honorary doctor of law degree from Notre Dame, and a member of the board of directors of the Marquette University School of Medicine.

Paul E. Bauman – Class of 1987

Colonel Paul E. Bauman serves in the United States Air Force as the Commander of the 319th Air Base Wing at Grand Forks Air Force Base, North Dakota and is a rated Command Pilot with over 3,800 flight hours in five different aircraft. He has applied his leadership and professionalism in combat, worldwide strategic airlift, and humanitarian airlift missions on 6 continents. Colonel Bauman has flown over 70 missions into Afghanistan and Iraq in support of both Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Tammy (Volgelman) Brever – Class of 1971

Currently an employee of Burlington High School for the past 24 years Tammy Brever is a model of Servant Leadership through her dedicated service to our community and its youth. She serves as the leader of Burlington’s Back 40 4-H Club, Racine County Fair Board of Directors, Superintendent at Racine County Fair, and Chairwomen of the Entertainment Committee of the Racine County Fair.