

“The human element of the Vitality program is the number one factor that motivated me. I love seeing how many Vitality Points I can rack up to get to the next level. Vitality makes fitness fun.”

MAKING HEALTHY CHOICES EASIER

Should you get extra sleep or wake up early to exercise? How nutritious is a hamburger? Sometimes, it's hard to make the healthy choice. That's where Vitality comes in. Vitality is a health promotion program built to continuously inspire, motivate and reward you to live your healthiest life.

Available to you through your employer, Vitality is geared to help you achieve your individual goals and feel supported by your work community. You will learn about your current health status, then complete activities that improve your health and lifestyle behaviors—all while unlocking a series of positive rewards.

HOW VITALITY WORKS

Your journey will start when you take the Vitality Health Review™, an interactive health risk assessment. Next, Vitality will calculate how old you are based on your health risks, not your chronological age. This tool is a powerful motivator for healthy lifestyle changes. From here, you can follow a custom wellness pathway to help you achieve your wellness goals and earn rewards.
